Assurance-of-Learning Exercises —nearly all new and, for the first time ever, organized into four sets as follows that apply chapter concepts, tools, and techniques:

Set 1: Strategic Planning for Coca-Cola—25 exercises apply chapter material to the Coca-Cola Cohesion Case to prepare students for doing case analysis on for-profit companies.

Set 2: Strategic Planning for My University—12 exercises apply chapter material to your college or university to prepare students for doing case analysis on nonprofit organizations.

Set 3: Strategic Planning to Enhance My Employability—14 exercises apply chapter material to individuals instead of companies to prepare students for making career choices.

Set 4: Individual versus Group Strategic Planning—11 exercises apply chapter material by comparing the effectiveness of individual versus group decisions; these are fun, in-class group exercises that yield “a winning individual and winning group” for each activity.

Detailed Chapter-by-Chapter Changes

Chapter 1: THE NATURE OF STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT—SWOT analysis is introduced; the integrative comprehensive strategic-management model is repositioned to the opening page of each chapter; the model is enhanced to accent the process of strategic planning being fluid rather than merely a sequence of silo activities.

Chapter 2: BUSINESS VISION AND MISSION—new material is provided on core value statements; new examples abound throughout.

Chapter 3: THE EXTERNAL ASSESSMENT—new material is provided on Porter’s Five-Forces Model; more guidance is provided regarding how to assign weights and ratings in matrices; new examples abound throughout; the ratings for a Competitive Profile Matrix now match the EFE Matrix in form and meaning.
Chapter 4: THE INTERNAL ASSESSMENT—this chapter has been revamped and shortened; the marketing material is enhanced; new examples abound throughout; the ratings for an IFE Matrix now match the EFE Matrix ratings in form and meaning.

Chapter 5: STRATEGIES IN ACTION—new material includes Blue Ocean Strategy, Value Chain Analysis, Porter’s Two Generic Strategies, and the need for firms to “BUILD, BORROW, or BUY.”

Chapter 6: STRATEGY ANALYSIS AND CHOICE—the presentation of this chapter that includes SWOT, BCG, IE, SPACE, GRAND, and QSPM analyses is enhanced and shortened; two new pages reveal how to estimate costs of recommendations.

Chapter 7: IMPLEMENTING STRATEGIES: MANAGEMENT AND MARKETING ISSUES—the title of this chapter changed to reflect new marketing material; our new coauthor is a marketing professor at Baylor University; this chapter is fully updated and enhanced, especially with new target marketing, segmentation, and positioning analyses.

Chapter 8: IMPLEMENTING STRATEGIES: FINANCE AND ACCOUNTING ISSUES—the title of this chapter changed since marketing material moved; there is enhanced presentation of financial and accounting tools, such as EPS/EBIT analysis, Corporate Valuation, and Projected Financial Statements; a new running example for P&G is provided; numerous author comments are given regarding the strategic planning template at www.strategyclub.com.

Chapter 9: STRATEGY EVALUATION AND GOVERNANCE—the title of this chapter changed due to excellent new material on corporate governance being presented.

Chapter 10: BUSINESS ETHICS, ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY, AND CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY—this chapter provides updated and new coverage of ethics, workplace romance, hiring away rival firms’ employees, wildlife welfare, and sustainability. This text reveals why “good ethics is good business” and why this is a strategic issue. The sustainability discussion is improved to promote and encourage firms to conduct operations with respect for the environment, an important concern for consumers, companies, society, and AACSB.

Chapter 11: GLOBAL AND INTERNATIONAL ISSUES—this chapter is enhanced and shortened but provides new coverage of cultural and conceptual strategic-management differences across countries. Doing business globally has become a necessity in most industries.

Part 6: STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT CASE ANALYSIS—this section that follows all chapters has been totally re-written to be more concise and revealing for students performing case analysis.

22 Author-Created Video Assignments in the MyLab

We have added 11 videos introducing the content of each chapter and 11 videos discussing a variety of important topics such as mission statement delivery, BCG matrix, corporate evaluation, etc. created by the author. Each video is associated with multiple-choice questions to help students assess their learning.

Solving Teaching and Learning Challenges

The primary challenge facing strategy professors is to keep students engaged while making sure business skills are learned. This text leads all others in being practical, skills-oriented, and unfolding in the same manner as the process of actually doing strategic planning unfolds. Students and professors alike appreciate this practical approach presented in a concise, conversational, and exciting manner—beginning with the integrative model of the strategic-management process that unifies all chapters. All of the 11 end-of-chapter Mini-Cases, 471 Review Questions, and 62 Assurance-of-Learning Exercises are designed specifically to apply chapter concepts.

The Case Rationale

Case analysis remains the primary learning vehicle used in most strategic-management classes, for five important reasons:

1. Analyzing cases gives students the opportunity to work in teams to evaluate the internal operations and external issues facing various organizations and to craft strategies that can lead these firms to success. Working in teams gives students practical experience in solving problems as part of a group. In the business world, important decisions are generally made within groups; strategic-management students learn to deal with overly aggressive group members as well as timid, noncontributing group members. This experience is valuable because strategic-management students are near graduation and soon enter the working world full-time.

2. Analyzing cases enables students to improve their oral and written communication skills as well as their analytical and interpersonal skills by proposing and defending particular courses of action for the case companies.

3. Analyzing cases allows students to view a company, its competitors, and its industry concurrently, thus simulating the complex business world. Through case analysis, students learn how to apply concepts, evaluate situations, formulate strategies, and resolve implementation problems.

4. Analyzing cases allows students to apply concepts learned in many business courses. Students gain experience dealing with a wide range of organizational problems that impact all the business functions.

5. Analyzing cases gives students practice in applying concepts, evaluating situations, formulating a “game plan,” and resolving implementation problems in a variety of business and industry settings.

The New Concepts-by-Cases Matrix
All 30 cases facilitate coverage of all strategy concepts, but as revealed by shaded cells, some cases especially exemplify particular key strategy concepts. The shaded cells reveal which concepts are tested with multiple-choice questions in the MyLab. The Concepts-by-Cases matrix enables professors to effectively utilize different cases to assure student learning of various chapter concepts. Note from the shaded boxes that two, three, or four cases are used to test each strategic-management concept. This new, innovative ancillary promises to elevate the case learning method to new heights in teaching strategic management.

The Case MyLab Testing Feature
The Concepts-by-Cases matrix facilitates student learning of 30 key strategic-management concepts applied to 30 cases. The Case MyLab Testing feature assures that the students can test their understanding of cases and the key strategic-management concepts, thus serving as a great mechanism for professors to achieve AACSB Assurance-of-Learning Objectives. This new testing feature simplifies grading for professors in both traditional and online class settings.

This MyLab assessment includes 25 multiple-choice questions for each case, comprised of 10 Basic questions that simply test whether the student read the case before class, and 15 Applied questions that test the student’s ability to apply various strategic-management concepts. The 15 Applied questions are presented in three sets of five that pertain to key concepts of particular importance for the respective case. This testing feature enables professors to determine, before class if desired, whether students (1) read the case in Basic terms, and/or (2) are able to Apply strategy concepts to resolve issues in the case. For example, the MyLab case Basic question may be: In what country is Domino’s Pizza headquartered? Whereas a MyLab case Applied question may be: What are three aspects of the organizational chart given in the Domino’s Pizza case that violate strategic-management guidelines?
Mini Sims put students in professional roles and give them the opportunity to apply course concepts and develop decision-making skills through real-world business challenges.

These branching Mini Sims strengthen a student’s ability to think critically, help students understand the impact of their decisions, engage students in active learning, and provide students with immediate feedback on their decisions.

Each decision point connects to the Learning Objective in the eText.

Students tell us they enjoy learning through Mini Sims!

The Chapter Warm-up assessment helps you hold your students accountable for READING and demonstrating their knowledge on key concepts in each chapter before coming to class.

Chapter Quizzes
Every chapter has quizzes written by the textbook authors so you can assess your students’ understanding of chapter learning objectives.

The David Approach Is Unique
This textbook is globally considered to be the most practical, skills-oriented strategic management textbook on the market. All chapters unfold from a widely used integrative model of strategic planning, so students learn the “process of doing strategic planning,” rather than focusing on seminal theories in strategy. The David approach is “learning by doing”—students develop skills that can enhance their own employability through numerous features, such as 62 new Assurance-of-Learning end-of-chapter exercises in this edition.

In addition, we offer more coverage on important topics, such as business ethics, social responsibility, and sustainability, than any other strategic-management textbook, including topics such as bribery, workplace romance, devising codes of ethics, taking a position (or not) on social issues, and preserving wildlife—topics that other textbooks do not mention, even though companies continually face strategic decisions in these areas.

We also offer more coverage of global/international issues than any other strategic-management textbook, including topics such as how business culture, taxes, tariffs, political stability, and economic conditions vary across countries—all framed from a strategic-planning perspective.

Lastly, this textbook is trusted across five continents to provide students (and managers) the latest skills and concepts needed to effectively formulate and efficiently implement a strategic plan—a game plan, if you will—that can lead to sustainable competitive advantages for any type of business. This text meets all AACSB International guidelines for the strategic-management course at both the graduate and undergraduate levels, and previous editions have been used at more than 500 colleges and universities globally.

Developing Employability Skills

Using this text, students learn how to actually do strategic planning—this is a huge employability skill because employers recognize the benefits of employees having an understanding of what a firm is trying to achieve and why. Nearly all students using this text also use the free strategic-planning template at the www.strategyclub.com author website; many students include this skill on their resume to showcase their experience using this Excel software commonly used by businesses for doing actual strategic planning.
